HIGHLAND SPRINGS

Union League service is held every Sunday evening at M. E. Church, beginning at 8 o'clock to which the public is cordially invited.

The condition of Rev. A. U. Somers' eye remains serious, being practically unchanged.

Through the benevolence of Mr. E. S. Read, a mother and seven children have been given the past week a home to live in and otherwise provided for, having been ejected from their recent home because of their inability to pay rent.

The condition of this poor woman, whose name is Mrs. Coleman, is most pitiable and appeals to the charity of all conscientious citizens.

Anything left here at the postoffice station to his home, will be thoroughly appreciated by her.

Mr. Flynn, late of Fulton Park, has moved his family into a flat in post-office block.

On last Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marano gave a birthday party in honor of their daughter, Miss Rosa at her home.

FOR IRRITATIONS OF THE SKIN, RASHES, HEAT, Perspiration, Lameness, and Soreness incidental to Golfing, Riding, Cycling, Tennis, or any Athletics, no other application so soothing, cooling, and refreshing as a bath with CUTICURA SOAP, followed by gentle anointings with CUTICURA, the Great Skin Cure.

Millions use CUTICURA SOAP, assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes and chafings, in the form of baths for annoying irritations and inflammations of women, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, as well as for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of flower odours. Nothing can induce those who have once used these great skin purifiers and beautifiers to use any others.

Complete external and internal treatment for every humour consisting of CUTICURA SOAP, to cleanse the skin of crusts and scales and soften the thickened cuticle; CUTICURA OINTMENT, to instantly allay itching, inflammation, and irritation, and soothe and heal; and CUTICURA RESOLVENT, to cool and cleanse the blood. A SINGLE SET is often sufficient to cure the most torturing, disfiguring, itching, burning, and scaly skin, scalp, and blood humours, with loss of hair, when all else fails.

Sold throughout the world. British Depot: F. NAWBURY & SONS, 27-28, Charterhouse Square, London. POTTER DRUG AND CHEMICAL CORPORATION, Sole Proprietors, Boston, U. S. A. Copyright applied for.

Messrs. Chris. Gebhardt, Andrew Atkinson, Ray Stagg, Albion Stagg, Henry Johnny, Willie and Louis Marano, Mr. Stagg, Mr. Atkinson and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Marano.

The cottage recently built on Beech Avenue by Architect Herrow for Mr. H. L. Vinal, of Vinehaven, is receiving the finishing touches, having received a coat of white paint with green trimmings, which makes it indeed a most attractive little home.

Mrs. W. P. Turner and son, Master Stuart McGuire Turner, spent the week with Mr. and Mrs. Hill Carter at their beautiful country place on the Williamsburg Road.

The Methodist Sunday school will hold their annual picnic at Forest Hill Park on Wednesday of this week, when all of the Sunday school children are expected to attend and will as usual spend a very happy day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. S. Faber, of Newbridge, and Miss Nellie Vinal, of Vinehurst, spent Thursday evening at Lynnhurst.

EAST RICHMOND.

On Thursday evening another delightful lawn party was given on the grounds at Sunday-school Hall under the auspices of the Nickel Social Club. It was, indeed, a beautiful evening, and accordingly a large gathering enjoyed the occasion, which was as delightful an affair as possible. A comfortable sum was realized from the sale of ice-cream.

Money will be used in improvements to the school.

Mrs. John C. Fowler and her two daughters, Misses Jessie and Ruth, have gone to London on an extended visit, and will return in September.

Mr. P. Fiege has recently added improvement to his home, which make Woodbine Cottage as cozy and attractive a home as one could desire.

Mr. Jacob Feilg entertained a number of his friends early in the week in the hospitable way so characteristic of him. The party was made up of jovial, law-abiding citizens.

Mrs. Richard Koch, who has been extremely ill, is reported to be improving quite rapidly under the skillful treatment of Dr. C. T. Collins, of Highland Springs.

Mrs. J. Johnson, of Richmond, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Little.

GAINES' MILL.

There will be services at Beulah Presbyterian Church, Sunday at 11 p. m., conducted by the pastor, Rev. A. Osburn. Children's Day exercises will be celebrated there on the fourth Sunday in August.

FARM MEMORIES

Come Back in Food.

How often a good appetite and a crackling good meal will bring back memories of old days on the farm! A mother says: "My eldest son, who has always had a weak stomach, was finally compelled to give up his position."

"I thought I could nurse him back to health, and began feeding him Grape-Nuts for breakfast, and after a short time he formed such a liking for it that I concluded to give it to him for supper too."

"He wanted me to prepare it even oftener, but I did not do so, for I was afraid he would take a dislike to the food. I gave him a dish of Grape-Nuts, and it would help him if he would only continue his use."

"He began to pick up rapidly, and now he is well and strong again, and has gone back to business, and he holds with honor a position that is very trying to the brain. Only yesterday he said to me: 'Grape-Nuts has certainly done wonders for me; I would not pass a day without it, and I use such a quantity of it, that I feel in mind of how we used to enjoy food on the farm.'"

"I first saw Grape-Nuts at a luncheon one day at a friend's home, and as soon as I tasted it I formed a liking for it. My friend had formerly been sick, but now she lives almost entirely upon Grape-Nuts, and she is also building up a delicate little daughter upon the food, and the story she told me of what Grape-Nuts had done for both of them was certainly remarkable." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Send to the company for particulars by mail of extension of time on the $7.500 cocks' contest for 75 money prizes.

August, hence the teachers and scholars are making considerable preparations for the occasion.

The youngest child of Mr. James Jones, who was supposed last week to be improving, is still critically ill.

Mrs. Balle Green is spending several weeks at West Point.

The Crawford W. C. T. U. will hold its annual meeting, near the farm, August 12th, at 1 o'clock P. M., at the residence of Mr. Linwood Wood, near Pole Green. Officers for the ensuing year are to be elected. Let every member be present.

Rutland, the new and commodious residence of Mr. T. S. Garrett, near Elyson's, is now a scene of gayety. Borders are supplied with rare advantages of the country—hot and cold water bath-rooms, fishing, bathing, boating and driving.

Mrs. Hufner is improving after a severe attack recently.

Mrs. M. J. Bryant, of Richmond, is expected to be the guest at Turkey Hill during the coming week, and from there will visit the Cliffs.

Mr. Osburn, of Cold Harbor National Cemetery, visited relatives at Seven Pines during the past week.

Master Henry Morgan, of Richmond, will be the guest of Master Joseph Adams for a few weeks.

Mr. A. Martin has commenced his new residence at a point near the farm, which he purchased a few months ago. It promises to be very attractive and pretty.

Mrs. M. J. Bryant, of Richmond, is expected to be the guest at Turkey Hill during the coming week, and from there will visit the Cliffs.

Mrs. Alice Bowman, Mrs. S. Wagner, Mrs. Marie Ammons, Misses Bessie and Edna, of Richmond, spent a very pleasant day Wednesday with Mrs. S. Huxter.

Mrs. Richard Huxter has returned home from a very pleasant visit among her friends and relatives in Baltimore.

Among the recent visitors at Oak Dale were: Mrs. Kemper Baker, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Allard, Miss Patterson, Miss Alice Allard, Miss Julia Mary Conrad, Messrs. Cliff and James Conrad.

Mrs. T. J. Smithers and Mrs. Andrew Smithers, of Richmond, and Mrs. R. Huxter spent Thursday with Mrs. Susan Huxter.

Mrs. R. A. Reid is slightly improved from her recent illness.

Young Men's Meeting.

Interesting services will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon. The young men's meeting will be in charge of the assistant secretary, Mr. J. H. M. Blair, the theme for the afternoon being "Paul—Earnestness."

The second moonlight excursion of the season under the auspices of the association, will be held on Tuesday night. Indications are that a big crowd will go; indeed, out of all the excursions conducted during the past eight years there has not been anything like a failure. There has never been a small crowd, and on several occasions the crowd has been equal to the capacity of the boat.

Pocahontas Delayed.

The steamer Pocahontas, on her way to Richmond, yesterday was delayed at Newport News by the breaking of one of her boilers.

She was repaired, and arrived here late last night. Owing to the accident the boat did not make her expected excursion trip to Norfolk last night.

THE MAN ABOUT Town
—BY—
Harry Tucker

Baltimore, July 25.

Something must have happened here. From the generally dilapidated condition of things, the tired feeling displayed upon the expressions of people's faces, and the many empty ginger ale bottles lying around, we are forced to the conclusion that a national convention of some kind or other has just been held.

We were right.

A policeman told us so, and we could not help believing him, after we went to the leading hotels and saw such names on the registers as John Bliley, Billy Mann, Ben Metzger, Edgar Allan, Jr., Tom Brandner, Frank Anthony, Connie Johnson, Johnnie Moore, Louis Wendelburg, Lee Latham, Eugene Lipscomb, Emmett Hagan, Frank Cunningham, Charles Angle, Jim Anthony John Anderson, Harry Glenn, Clarence Cosby, John Doyle, and Sparks Lawrence.

There were other names, too, but we cannot think of them all.

Anyhow, we knew that there was a convention, and we heard that a quartette of fellows hired a carriage and drove out through Druid Hill Park to see the sea lion, but that they went to sleep before they got to the park, and when they awoke all around for hours, and when the driver got through with them they had to cut short their stay in Baltimore, because of the financial condition of things.

Also that Clarence Cosby, Connie Johnson and Harry Glenn met some of the ladies of Baltimore in the exchange of courtesies at Dennett's restaurant, and that life-long friendships sprang up, but that the gentlemen forgot to leave their home addresses.

We did all we could to straighten out the oversight of our friends, and tried to fix up the addresses, and we hope that matters will go along swimmingly.

We found from the register that Captain
